

SUTTON UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB

is proud to announce its

28th Gentlemen's Evening

With Sporting Legend NEIL "RAZOR" RUDDOCK

With a career spanning 17 years Razor has played for Millwall, Tottenham, Millwall (again), Southampton, Tottenham (again), Liverpool, Queens Park Rangers, West Ham United, Crystal Palace and Swindon Town. He has represented his country at all levels winning his first and last full England cap playing under Terry Venables against Nigeria on 16th November 1994. Since finishing his England football career Razor has made a name for himself as a TV presenter appearing in "I'm a Celebrity", "Wife Swap", "Stars in Your Eyes" (losing to a Dingle), "Soccer AM", "Celebrity Darts" and many, many more. Razor is currently the number one After Dinner Speaker in the country and one of the most recent ex professionals to do the circuit.

ONE NOT TO MISS, HE SAID!!

Compere

MILES
CRAWFORD

Miles Crawford is a versatile television and radio presenter, popular TV warm-up man, talented stand-up comedian, charismatic voice-over artist and one the UK's premier compere/host within the Corporate and Comedy industry.

Comedian

SIMON
FOX

Simon Fox's television work has seen him appear alongside Bob Monkhouse, Mel and Sue, Terry Wogan, Des O'Connor, Jonathan Ross and Shane Richie, as well as making regular guest appearances on a weekly kids programme seamlessly hosted by Sasha Baron-Cohen. In 2008 Simon had the great honour of performing with Dame Helen Mirren. In 2010 while performing in South Africa, Simon was very proud to become the first ever white stand-up comedian to perform in the South African township of Soweto, performing to a sell out audience in the Sedibeng Tavern Soweto.
