CHRIS'S COLUMN

A warm welcome to the Eastleigh directors, staff, players and supporters - we hope you have a safe journey to and from Gander Green Lane for this evening's game.

We come into the game off the back of two wins - the first back to back wins that Sutton United have had this season, we are absolutely making progress and building momentum which means we go into tonight's game confident of delivering another positive performance and result.

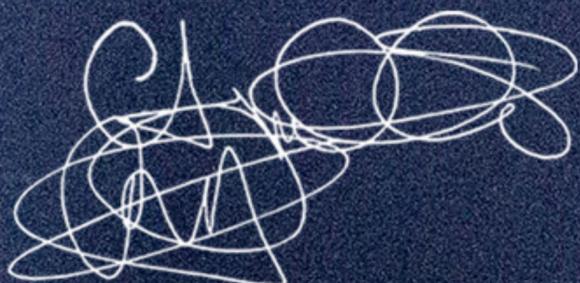

Tonight's opponents Eastleigh have made a decent start in general and under new manager Scott Bartlett will undoubtedly continue to climb in the National League standings. Scott did a great job at Weston-super-Mare so it's no surprise to see him have another positive impact for tonight's opponents.

Finally and most importantly, on behalf of the First Team staff and players, and I'm sure I speak for the whole Football Club, I want to say how sad the news was to hear that long term supporter Frances Bardrick has been absent from recent games due to illness. A woman who supports the club home and away that no doubt is amber and chocolate to the core being unable to follow us is not news that we want to hear....with this in mind we would like to wish Frances a speedy recovery and we hope to see and hear her in the stands supporting us again very soon!

We will once again be giving our absolute all to deliver three more important points this evening, motivated to continue to build momentum, motivated to climb the table, motivated for ourselves, and motivated for Frances and the rest of the tremendous Amber Army.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER, TIM ALLISON

TIM TALKS

A warm welcome is extended to this evening's visitors to the VBS Community Stadium, Eastleigh, both clubs having tasted the delights of the FA Challenge Cup at the weekend, with different fortunes.

Eastleigh took part in the equivalent fixture to ours in the First Round last season, where we had a Sunday on television hosting Birmingham City, they faced Walsall at home in front of the cameras. Hopefully the benefits of some television money and greater exposure will be of some comfort as they exited the competition to opponents higher up the pyramid. By contrast we dispatched, albeit by a fine margin, contenders from lower in the pyramid in AFC Telford United, and receive the twin joys of winning prize money and a Second Round tie – the doorway to the big boys if successful – when we will be hosting Shrewsbury Town. As at the time of writing we don't know if that is enticing enough to once again be featured on television.

Whilst Eastleigh have only become a club at the top tier of the football pyramid in recent seasons (in football terms at least) they have established themselves in the National League as consistent performers, and have ambitions for higher still, similar to ourselves.

In those years the two clubs have already created overlap in terms of past managers with Paul Doswell and Ian Baird occupants of both dugouts.

On the playing side a few familiar faces have signed for both clubs, one of whom was man of the match in our last National League fixture (a game I didn't think I would want to write about again) in Enzo Boldewijn. I have no doubt many Spitfires supporters will recognise a familiar face (or three!) in our current squad with Jayden Harris featuring on loan to them in the 2023-24 season from Carlisle United.

Noa Boutin was on loan last season at Eastleigh, and now features for the Ambers on loan this. Even more recently, in fact this week, Jake Taylor has joined us – and created the slightly unusual squad conundrum of having 2 J Taylors potentially on the teamsheet.

It is not just the players and coaching staff that have a connection to our club, as today's match referee is Emily Heaslip, who has officiated in games as important as the Women's FA Challenge Cup Final and the Women's League Cup Final, but made her National League debut last season when Sutton visited Yeovil. No doubt we would welcome a repeat of the scoreline, and that of our victory at the weekend, being a 2 – 1 scoreline.

Last season in the equivalent fixture it was a game of two penalties, with Sutton coming away with a 1–0 victory, Jack Sims sparing his namesake's blushes saving the effort after Jack Taylor's indiscretion was penalised, followed by Will Davies smashing the ball into the back of the net and promptly grabbing his York City inspired Gucci handbag to celebrate in front of a packed Collingwood Road end.

Here's hoping that end is rocking with celebration this evening too.

Up the U's!

Newly appointed Eastleigh boss Scott Bartlett has enjoyed a positive start to life in Hampshire, losing just one league game so far following his move from Weston-super-Mare.

Prior to his role at Weston, Bartlett held positions at Forest Green Rovers, including Academy Manager and caretaker First-Team Manager, before moving to the Woodspring Stadium in 2019.

During his tenure, he led the club to promotion to the National League South in 2023 after winning the Southern League Premier South title, and he subsequently enjoyed a superb start to the current campaign under Bartlett's guidance, sitting second in the National League South at the time of his departure, leading the Seagulls to 22 points from their opening nine fixtures.

Since opting to move to Eastleigh, he has gained nine points his opening six league games, as well as reaching the FA Cup First Round with a 2-0 win over Hampton & Richmond Borough.

THE DESTROYER
EWEKA

Temi Eweka has become a key part of Eastleigh's defense since joining from Maidstone United, helping the Spitfires rank among the division's stronger defensive sides. He began at Dartford's academy before gaining senior experience with VCD Athletic, Kingstonian, and Hastings United. His breakthrough came at Bracknell Town, playing 35 games and scoring six goals in their 2021/22 title-winning campaign. Eweka then moved to Maidenhead United, with loan spells at Gloucester City, Dulwich Hamlet, and Slough Town, helping Slough avoid relegation. After signing permanently, he played 46 matches, scoring three goals. In May 2024, he joined Maidstone United, scoring on his league debut.

BLAIR

Aaron Blair began at Dagenham & Redbridge's academy before gaining senior experience on loan at Brightlingsea Regent and Braintree Town in 2022/23, notably scoring five goals in seven appearances during one Braintree stint. His impressive form earned a permanent move to Braintree, where over two seasons he made 91 appearances and scored 31 goals, including crucial goals in the 2023/24 National League South play-off semi-final and final to secure promotion. In June 2024, Blair joined Maidstone United under George Elokobi, quickly integrating into the squad and netting eight goals in 26 league appearances during the 2024/25 season.

THE FINISHER CIARAN MCGUCKIN

Ciaran McGuckin, a Northern Ireland youth international, progressed through Rotherham's academy and debuted in October 2021 in the EFL Trophy.

Turning professional in April 2022, he gained senior experience on loan at Scarborough Athletic, Dundalk, and Yeovil Town, where he scored three goals in seven games before briefly returning to Rotherham and rejoining Yeovil for the season.

1 | Nick Townsend

Goalkeeper

Born in Solihull, Townsend joined Birmingham City's academy at nine. After loan spells at Oxford City and Lincoln, he moved to Barnsley in 2015, helping win promotion and the EFL Trophy. Later at Newport County, he made 200+ appearances and, in 2022, debuted internationally for Antigua and Barbuda.

22 | Josh McNamara

Goalkeeper

Josh McNamara began at Manchester City's academy, making 17 Premier League 2 appearances across development squads. He won the Under-18 Premier League 2 title in 2021/22, then joined Southampton in 2023, adding 17 Under-21 appearances and a loan spell at St Albans City, gaining valuable senior experience.

2 | Richard Brindley

Defender

Brindley joined the Spitfires at the start of the 2024/25 season after spending five years with Notts County.

The right-back is a product of Norwich City's youth system, and has played over 100 games in the National League during his career.

3 | Jake Vokins

Defender

Jake Vokins spent the back end of the 2023/24 season on loan with the Spitfires before signing a deal to join up permanently during the summer after that.

The left-back spent his youth career with Southampton and even went on to make appearances for them in the Premier League, and has also represented England at youth level 16 times.

4 | Luis Fernandez

Defender

Luis Fernandez embarked on his first season as a Spitfire, linking up with Kelvin Davis' squad following his transfer from Hampton & Richmond over the summer.

His performances during the 2023/24 season for his former club earned him the 'Player of The Season' award, and the centre-back has described himself as someone who "gets a lot of joy out of defending his goal."

16 | Aaron Pierre

Defender

Aaron Pierre, a 32-year-old centre-back joined the Spitfires with extensive EFL experience and over 15 caps for Grenada. Starting at Brentford in 2012, he later played for Wycombe, Northampton, Shrewsbury, Sutton, and AFC Wimbledon, earning multiple Player of the Season awards and competing internationally, including in the Concacaf Gold Cup.

21 | Sonnie Davis

Defender

The 20-year-old full-back joined on loan from Southampton, where he rose through the academy and became a U21/U23 regular. Davis made 20+ Premier League 2 appearances, scoring three goals and captaining the side. Son of former manager Kelvin, he extended his contract in 2023 and trained with the senior squad.

27 | Archie Harris

Defender

Archie Harris joined the Spitfires for 2025/26, having gained senior experience in the National League and South. A Bournemouth academy graduate, Harris had loan spells at Poole Town, Torquay United—earning BVEC Player of the Month—and Truro City. He is the son of former Eastleigh defender Andy Harris.

31 | Niall Maher

Defender

Niall Maher joined the Spitfires ahead of the 2024/25 National League season, debuting against Maidenhead United. A Bolton academy graduate of 13 years, he captained FC Halifax Town and earned 2021/22 National League Team of the Season honours. He later made 60+ League Two appearances over two years with Grimsby.

4 | Lloyd Humphries

Midfielder

Lloyd Humphries joined the Spitfires at the start of the 2024/25 season after spending five seasons with Weston-super-Mare.

He won their Player of the Season award in the 2022/23 and 2023/24 seasons, and played every single minute for them in the latter of the two campaigns.

7 | Kieron Evans

Midfielder

After turning down EFL interest, Kieron Evans joins the Spitfires ahead of the National League season. A technical midfielder from Cardiff City's Academy, he debuted in 2021 and gained experience on loan at Linfield, Torquay United—36 appearances, two goals—and Gateshead, helping secure an FA Trophy win in 2023/24 with three goals.

17 | Josh Lundstram

Midfielder

A Crewe Alexandra academy graduate, Josh Lundstram gained senior experience on loan at non-league clubs, notably helping Altrincham win the 2020 National League North play-offs. After standout seasons with Altrincham and Oldham, earning multiple Player of the Year awards, the 26-year-old also debuted internationally for England C in 2023.

18 | Angel Waruih

Midfielder

Angel Waruih joined the Spitfires upon the expiration of his contract at Brentford.

The 20-year-old central midfielder spent 13 years at Plymouth Argyle, featuring in the 2021/22 EFL Trophy squad, before moving to Brentford in 2022. He made six appearances in Brentford B's Premier League Cup-winning season and stayed through 2023/24.

24 | Jordan Cousins

Midfielder

Jordan Cousins began at Charlton Athletic, making over 125 appearances and winning 2014/15 Player of the Year. He later played for QPR, Stoke, Wigan—helping secure promotion in 2021/22—and Cambridge United. An England youth international, he now represents Jamaica, bringing over a decade of EFL experience with more than 250 senior appearances.

9 | Paul McCallum

Forward

Paul McCallum has excelled in his second spell with the Spitfires, scoring 35 goals to become the National League's top scorer in 2023/24. His FA Cup brace against Reading helped the club reach the third round, and across 111 appearances for the Spitfires, he has netted 70 goals.

15 | Harvey Saunders

Forward

Harvey Saunders offers extensive EFL experience, having played for Fleetwood Town, Bristol Rovers, and Tranmere Rovers. Beginning in Sunday League while working full-time, he progressed through local sides including Darlington Railway Athletic and Darlington FC, before establishing himself in League One and Two as a hardworking, consistent attacking threat.

HISTORIC RAMBLINGS

Written by Mark Frake

Three from the 5th November

A date for football puns so I will try to avoid them. Sutton's first match as a senior club was during the first season that they enjoyed that status, 1910/11. However, the match was a friendly with Fulham Amateurs, U's winning by 5-0 with Thornton netting three of the goals. Since then, another nineteen matches have been contested, the last that very disappointing afternoon at home to Farnborough in the FA Cup when U's tasted the other end of a giant-killing as an EFL club in 2022. The FA Cup first round features on three other occasions.

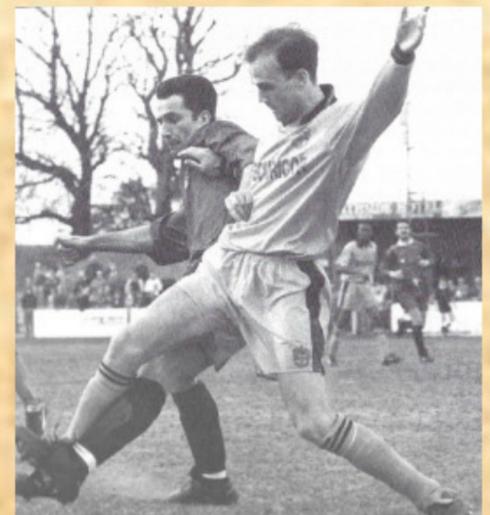

A home 2-2 draw with Romford in 1960 (lost replay 5-0), that amazing 6-3 success at Dartford in 2016 and the following year the narrow defeat at Cambridge United. The first competitive match was in 1921, a 2-0 away defeat of Burberry's in the Amateur Cup 2nd qualifying round and another cup tie was in 1927, a win at Enfield by 3-0 in the London Senior 1st qualifying round. Of the League matches, two stand out one of which is featured below. The other was at Walthamstow Avenue in the Athenian League in 1938. The strong host side won by 9-1, an eight goal deficit only matched in peace-time competitive league football by that 8-0 defeat at Stockport in 2023. Of the away matches, Sutton have won four, lost five and drawn one; at home the record is W5 L4 D1, even stevens.

The Match

We travel back just over thirty years to 1994 and the visit of Bishops Stortford in the Isthmian League. Neither side was enjoying life in the IL with the visitors just two points and two places above Sutton in 14th place. United had gone four league matches without a win and had not been successful at GGL since 23rd August. The match was played on a wet afternoon and started slowly before, in the 23rd minute, Dominic Feltham scored with a low shot and five minutes later David Jones headed in off the crossbar from a Steve Smart cross. Stortford's capitulation continued as in the 41st minute Paul Barrowcliff sent Feltham through and he rounded the 'keeper Gavin King to plant the ball in a vacant net.

Stortford hit the crossbar early in the second period but in the 75th minute Kelly Haag headed home from a Micky Stephens delivery. The best goal was the last goal. The 89th minute saw Feltham produce one of his trademark chipped finishes to complete a fine hat-trick; 5-0 it finished in front of 547 people. This was to prove one of few bright spots in an IL campaign that saw the club flirt dangerously with relegation before being galvanised late in the term. The game also saw one of the shortest first-team careers for the club with former Wimbledon striker Leighton Allen's substitute's appearance his only fifteen minutes in a Sutton shirt.

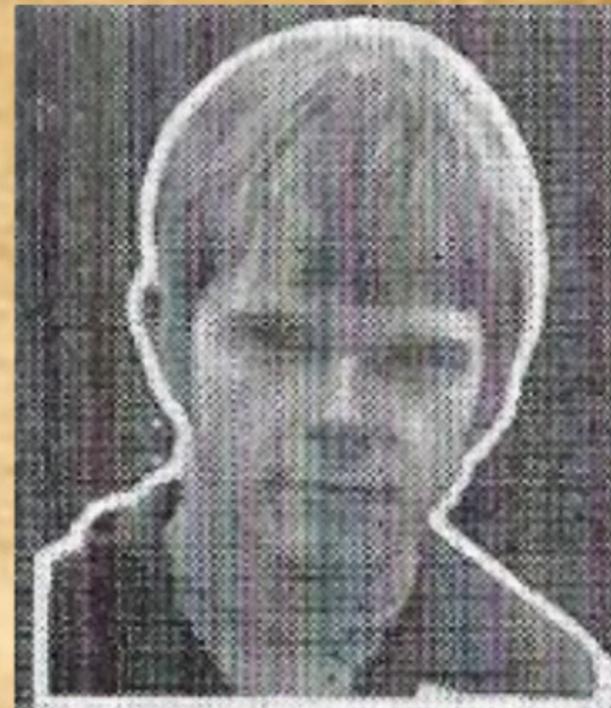

Hat-trick Hero – Dominic Feltham

U's: McCaulsky, Gates, Smart (Lunn 67), Hemsley, Costello, Jones, Anderson, Barrowcliff, Feltham, Haag (Allen 75), Stephens

The Player

Appearing and indeed scoring for Sutton on this day in 1968 was a young inside forward, Alan Gane. He was also the club's manager at the time of the above featured match. Alan joined U's during the summer of 1968 after being released by Chelsea. The 1968/9 season would be his only one at Sutton as a player, making his debut against Walton & Hersham in South of the Thames Cup on 10th September, scoring in a 3-1 win. Alan enjoyed a run of matches during which he netted another three times but the arrival of Peter Drabwell and the return to form of Micky Mellows saw his opportunities reduced to being often twelfth man. Perhaps that and the disappointment of being the unused substitute at the 1969 Amateur Cup Final was too much for a young footballer and the following season he joined Slough Town before moving on to a semi-pro contract with Hereford United and then having a spell with Brentford moving on to Wycombe Wanderers during the '72/73 season.

A spell at Chelmsford City was followed by a return to Slough for the 1975/6 season and he remained at Wexham Park until moving to Staines Town in 1980 and then Walton & Hersham. In 1984 Alan cut his managerial teeth as assistant manager at Wycombe before taking full control during the 1985/6 season. Sacked by Wycombe he became Staines manager during the '87/8 term and then was seduced by Wealdstone during 1989/90 before being appointed as Sutton manager for the 1991/2 season. His mission was to return Sutton to the GMV Conference but despite some great football being played under him and it should be said spending a fair bit of money on transfer fees (unheard of at SUFC before) he never really got near.

Cup runs including the Trophy semi-final in 1993 and the FA Cup 3rd round in 1994 proved to be exciting highlights. Of those players he did bring to the club unarguably the best ironically cost the club nothing, Dominic Feltham. As stated above, the '94/5 season proved difficult for Sutton, and Alan and the club parted ways in early February.

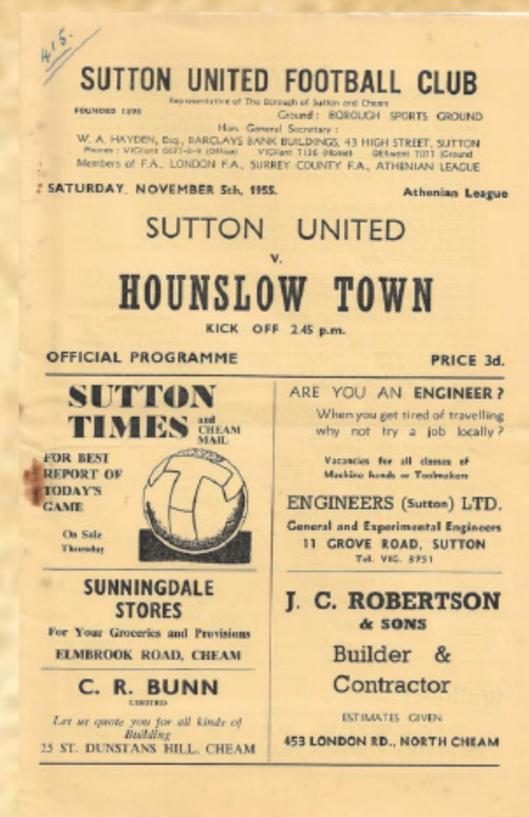

Ganey loved Sutton (to be fair he was very popular with officials and fans alike himself) and such was his disappointment at having to leave in such a manner he never managed another football club. Under his stewardship Sutton won the Loctite (Isthmian Full Members) Cup in 1992 and reached two Surrey Senior finals, winning in 1993 but losing a year later. However, the IL title was, at the time, his (and the club's) Holy Grail. As a player, Alan made 32 appearances scoring 4 goals and he took control of 243 matches winning 122 split evenly home and away.

The Programme

Mid 1950s fare this evening and the home programme for an Athenian League match with Hounslow Town. The eight page production (cover below) was in its fourth season and maintained a rigorous presentation save for a few nuances. The inside cover held club notes (not accredited) and discussed the rise of Hounslow as a force in amateur football as well as considering the merits of a clutch of new signings including seventeen year old left back Eddie Speight. The Grandstand Fund (you may well be or have sat in it today) had raised £4 8/2 at the previous home match. At the bottom of the notes, a list of U's goal scorers saw Billy Robinson top with ten.

Continues

On page three adverts dominated the up to date Athenian tables (senior and reserve), R Knowler proprietor of The Jug House Off-Licence in Collingwood Road sat beneath them. As ever middle pages held the team line ups surrounded by more adverts including one for Shinnars Ltd (I expect a nostalgic delight for some of the club's older patrons). Fixtures and results were presented on page six with mixed fortunes for the reserves losing 7-0 at Hayes but despatching Southall by 6-1 in a spell of under two months. Page seven had a Supporters' Club column reporting on the success of a "Games Evening" with the Barns Green and Itchingfield Social Club held at The Wandgas Sports Ground. Below that was the rare siting of the Surrey Combination table in which U's third team sat fourth and unbeaten. The back cover was mainly adverts but a middle band displayed club honours and next Saturday's fixture with Enfield reserves. A fair bit of information packed in alongside the plethora of local businesses renting advertisement space. Wonderful.

SUFC v Eastleigh

While Eastleigh's first visit to GGL was in the FA Cup in 2001, the two clubs have met regularly in league football since 2005/06 season. They did the double over U's that season winning by 3-0 here, a victory that remains their best at Sutton in league football. That was in the Conference South and their only win at Sutton in that competition. In the NL tonight is their sixth visit and they have just picked up one point in their previous five visits, a 1-1 draw in January 2017. Four years later, Sutton recorded their best score line against Eastleigh at Sutton, 3-0. U's record at The Silverlake is no better than Eastleigh's is here. The only victory was by 2-1 in September 2007 in the CS, ironically Sutton's worst season in just over eighty years. Last season's 1-1 draw on BH Monday in August (care of Eduino Vaz's brilliant strike) was only Sutton's second NL point at Eastleigh.

U's record at GGL (league only) W6 D4 L1 F15 A8

Ross Montague, Craig Dundas and Jamie Collins hold the joint top scorer record for Sutton versus Eastleigh with two each.

There is a long list of players to have appeared for both clubs influenced by Paul Doswell, particularly in his early seasons at GGL. They include 'keeper Gareth Howells; defenders Karim El-Salahi, Chris Collins, Dean Beckwith and Dan Spence and midfielders David Hughes (he also managed Eastleigh) Gavin Heeroo and Chris Piper. Wide men include the talented Matt Hann, Tony Taggart and Enzo Boldewijn while up front current coach Matt Tubbs will be remembered for a brief but important role during the 2016/17 season including that equaliser against Cheltenham in the FA Cup 2nd round. Steve Watts, Marvin Williams and Andy Forbes are other strikers to have worn both sets of colours. Finally, Jamie Collins partnered Beckwith for both clubs in the middle of the back four; Dos always called him his best signing and he delivered with that spot kick in January 2017 against Leeds United to set up that special evening with Arsenal.

There are plenty of others and as well as Tubbsy we welcome back Aaron Pierre this evening, while from our squad Noa Boutin and Jayden Harris have both had spells at the Silverlake Stadium.

THE DAVID WEIR DIARIES

The latest news from David Weir Leisure Centre; the home of the Sutton Academy and Women's teams.

Sutton fell to a second consecutive defeat in the EFL Youth Alliance South, with a 2-1 defeat away at Exeter City.

A Bobby Sheargold strike saw the U's keep the deficit close, but two goals from Tobias Allsop were enough to seal a victory for the Grecians.

Sutton are next in action in the EFL Youth Alliance on Saturday with the visit of Newport County, while the Academy were also in action in the National League Football Academy Cup this afternoon against Wealdstone.

Sutton United Women extended their unbeaten run to eight games with a statement win against Dartford Women at the David Weir.

Both sides began brightly, trading early chances in an even contest. Dartford struck first when Amina Hanif hit the post, before Sutton's K'Shaela Burch-Waldren tested goalkeeper Charlton. The visitors looked dangerous, but Lizzie Adams' timely clearance denied Gabby Williams a clear opportunity. After half an hour, Dartford began to dominate, with Ekwo posing constant problems down the left. Just before half time, she set up Shauni Griffiths, who fired over.

Sutton regrouped after the break and took a surprise lead through Burch-Waldren, who lobbed Charlton following a clever free kick from Lucy Clark's side. Dartford immediately pushed for an equaliser, Leen Ekwo forcing a fine save from Megan Taylor. Despite pressure, clear chances were limited.

Ekwo came closest late on, volleying inches wide in the 83rd minute, sparking a late Dartford surge.

Taylor's brilliant save and Tessa Allen's last-ditch clearance in stoppage time secured Sutton's 1-0 victory, extending their unbeaten run since September.

London & South East Regional Football League Cup Second Round

Sutton United Women Manager Lucy Clark has been nominated for the London & South East Regional Football League Premier Division Manager of the Month award.

The recognition for the U's boss comes after she guided the club to four points from a possible six during October, with Sutton extending their unbeaten run to eight in all competitions, including four in the league.

Clark's side began the month with a 5-2 win over Penn and Tylers Green in the Women's FA Cup, and was followed by a 3-0 win over Carshalton Athletic in the Isthmian Cup.

This preceded their first league game of the month, with a Gabby Williams goal securing a 1-1 draw with Dorking Wanderers, before an Emma Spear brace sealed a 2-1 win over Barking the following week.

Brentford's Carly Williams and Millwall's Ted Jones have also been nominated for the prize.

Congratulations, Lucy!

Jay Coombes and Mikey Charvetto Parody are set to return to international action, having been called up to the Gibraltar Under-21 squad for the November international break.

Los Llanas are set to take on Serbia (12th November), Croatia (15th November) and Georgia (18th November) in the UEFA Under-19 European Championship Qualifiers.

Coombes was last involved with the squad during the October international break, appearing in a tough couple of fixtures for the Under-21's, playing 76 minutes in 12-0 defeat to Scotland, before being followed by an 11-0 defeat to Portugal five days later in which he was named on the bench alongside Charvetto Parody.

The latter was named as unused substitute in both games, and returns to the Under-19s ahead of the upcoming international break, now alongside Coombes

DAVID OGBONNA:

"We Could've Had Two, Three, Maybe Even Four"

David Ogbonna was full of praise for his teammates after his side earned a hard-fought 2–1 victory against AFC Telford United in the FA Cup, securing a place in the Second Round.

His instinctive finish set the tone for the performance, latching onto Jayden [Harris]'s low cross with an improvised touch that looped beyond the goalkeeper, and the forward was quick to highlight the team's resilience and attacking intent after a lively contest.

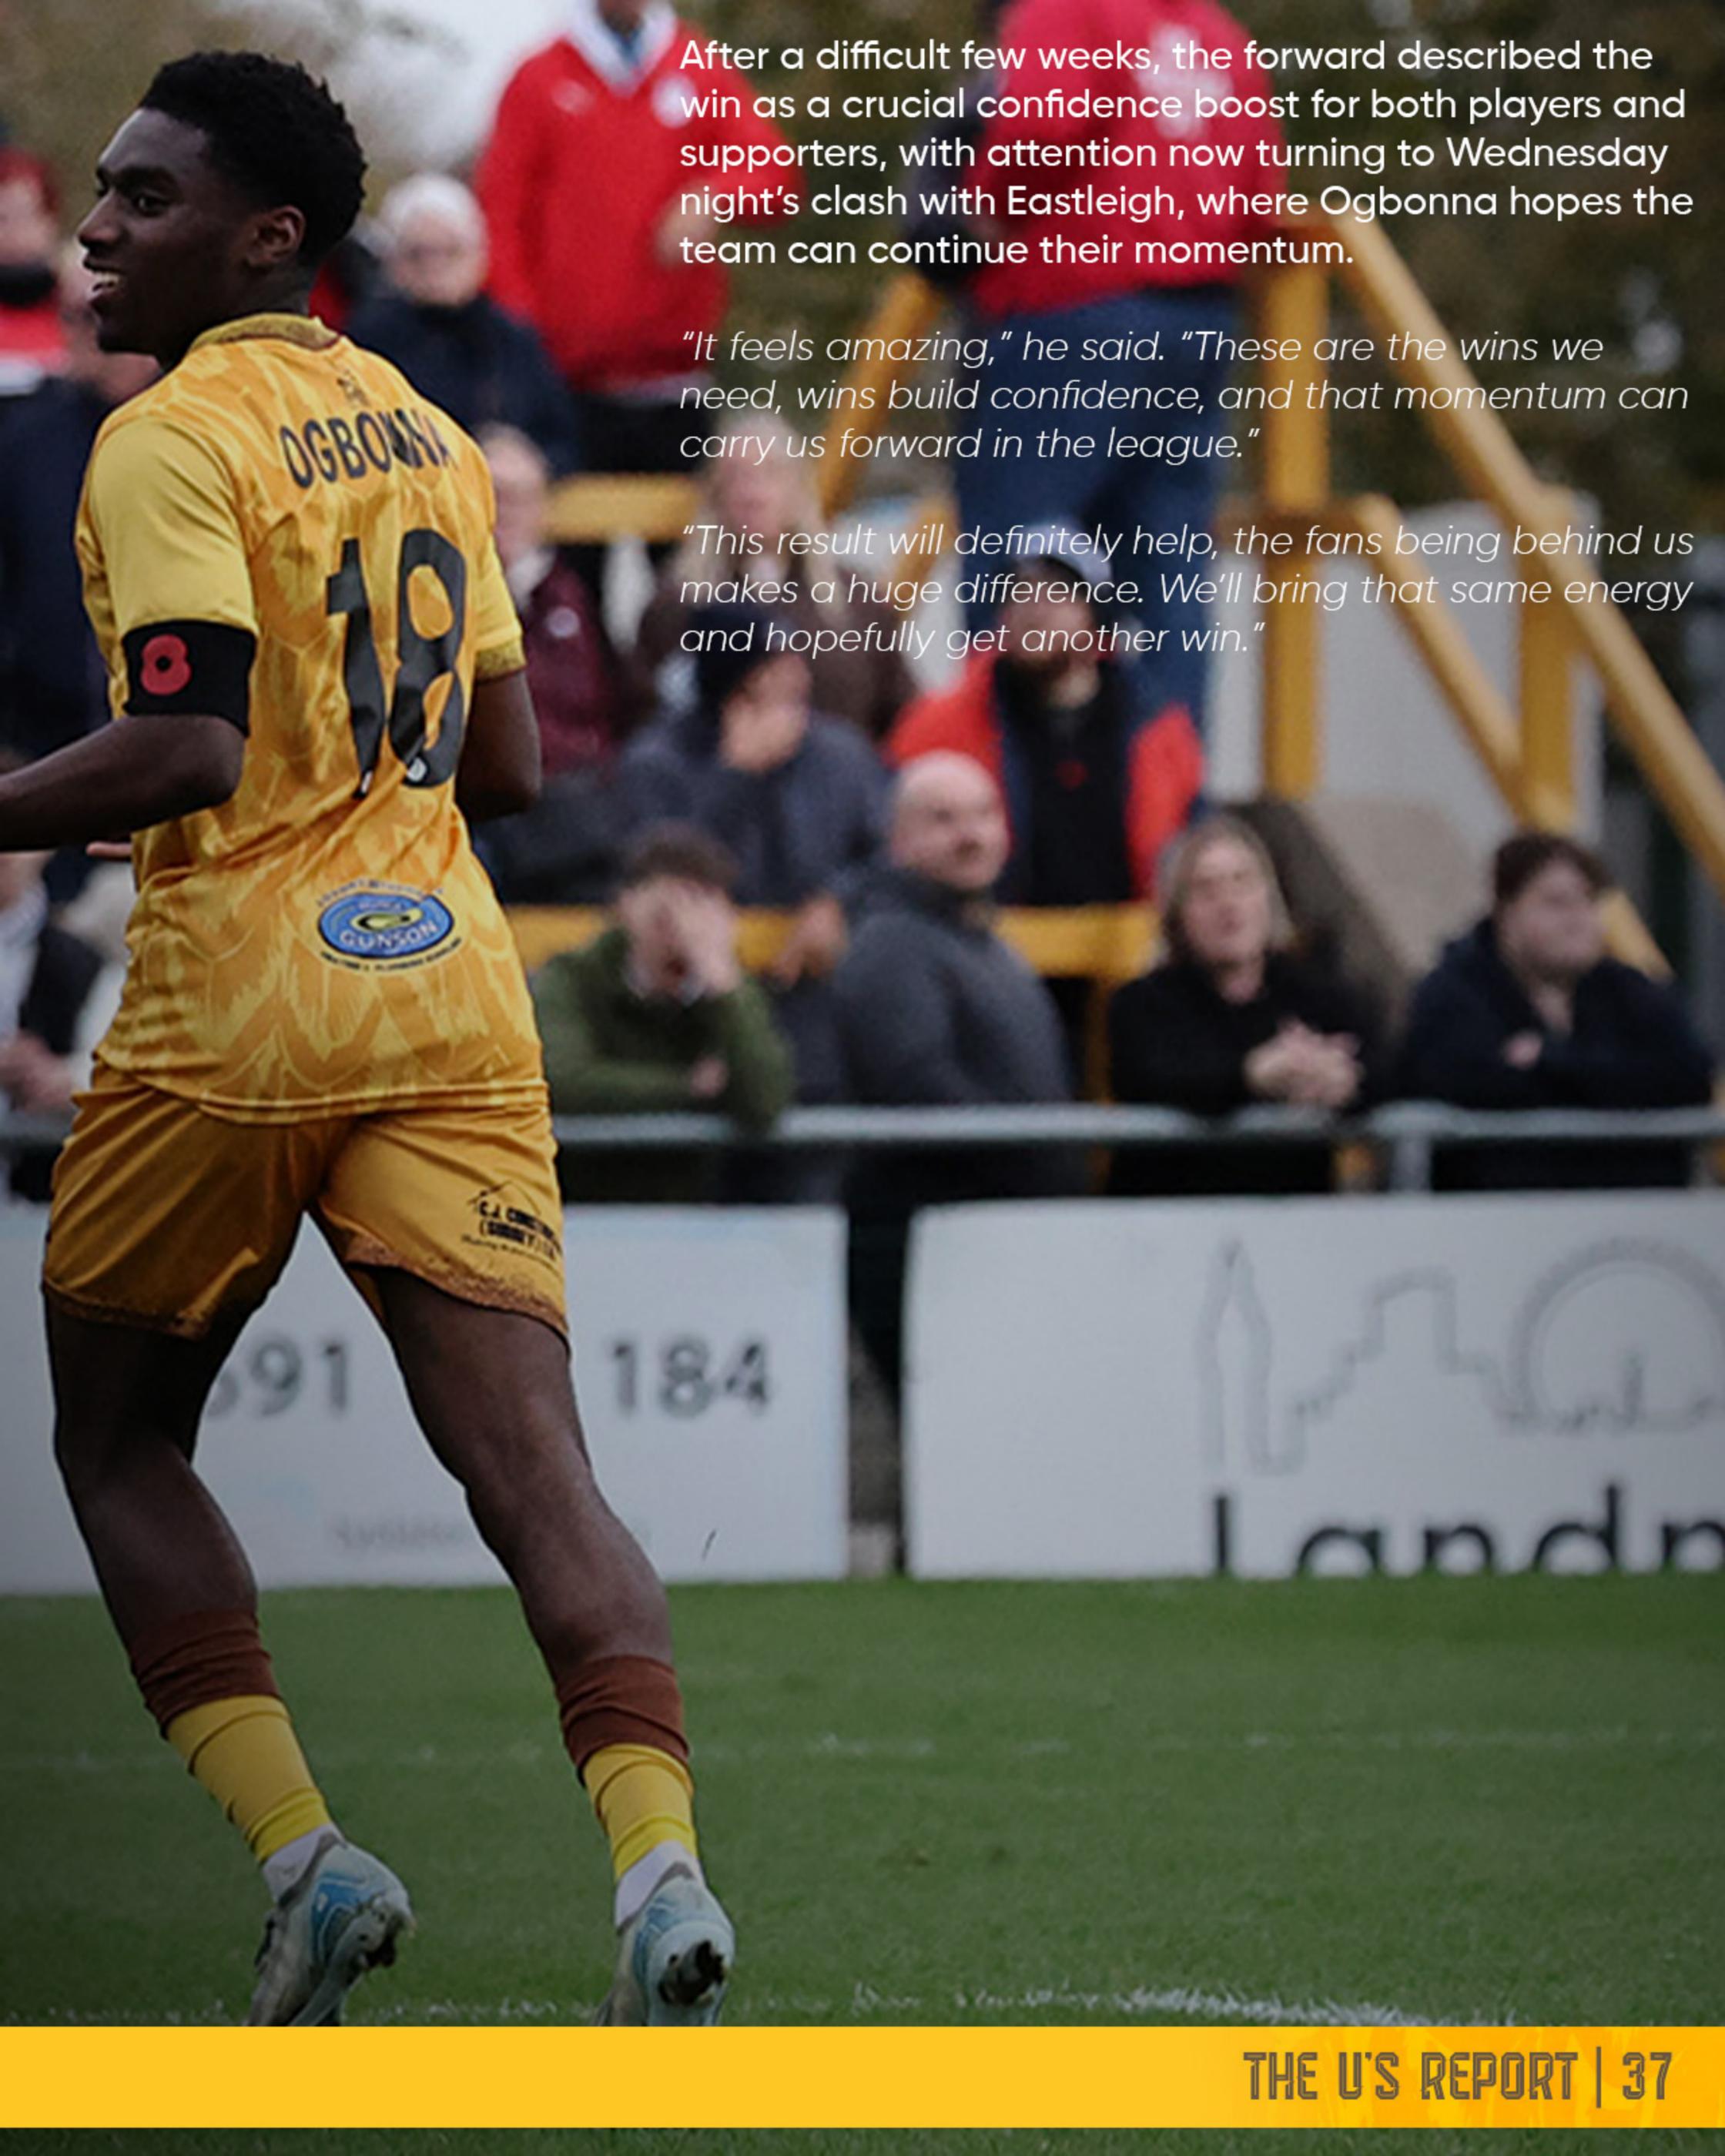

"I think it was pretty up and down at the start," David admitted. "We didn't really get control early on, but once we settled into our rhythm and started attacking, we looked really dangerous. We could've had two, three, maybe even four, but I'm just proud of the win."

"It [the goal] just happened," he explained. "I saw Jayden about to square it, the ball was coming from behind me, so I flicked it and it went in."

Since joining from Slough Town in the summer, Ogbonna has adjusted quickly to life at a higher level and believes his recent form shows he was ready to make the step up, as well as speaking highly of the impact made by manager Chris Agutter.

"I think I've managed it well," he said. "When I first joined, I said I was ready to come here and make the step, and I feel like I'm proving that now. The fans have been brilliant with me too."

"It's been really good under Chris," he added. "Training has been high intensity and very focused. The lads are enjoying it and we're looking forward to every game."

After a difficult few weeks, the forward described the win as a crucial confidence boost for both players and supporters, with attention now turning to Wednesday night's clash with Eastleigh, where Ogbonna hopes the team can continue their momentum.

"It feels amazing," he said. "These are the wins we need, wins build confidence, and that momentum can carry us forward in the league."

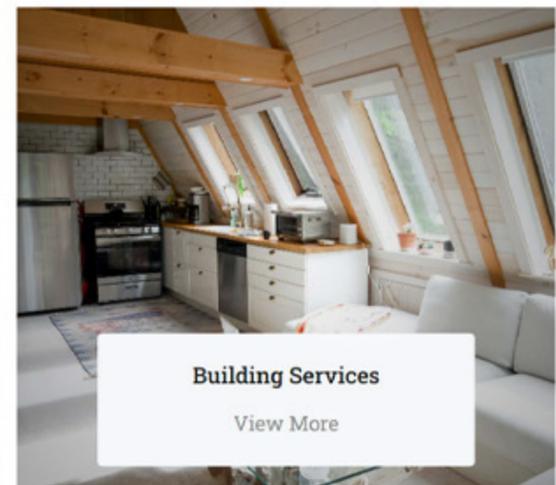

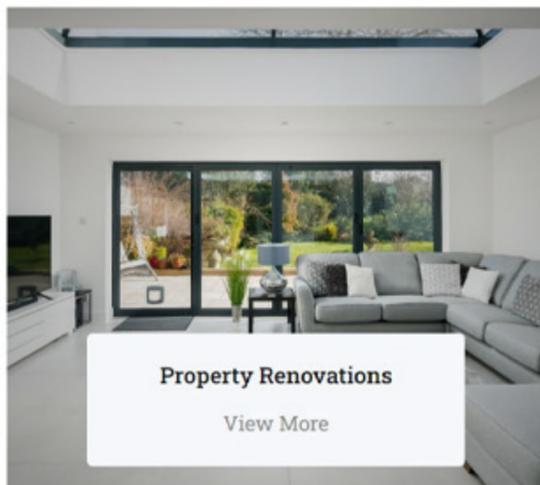

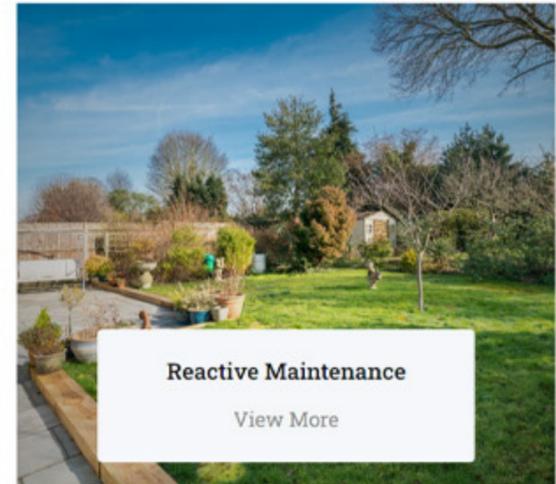

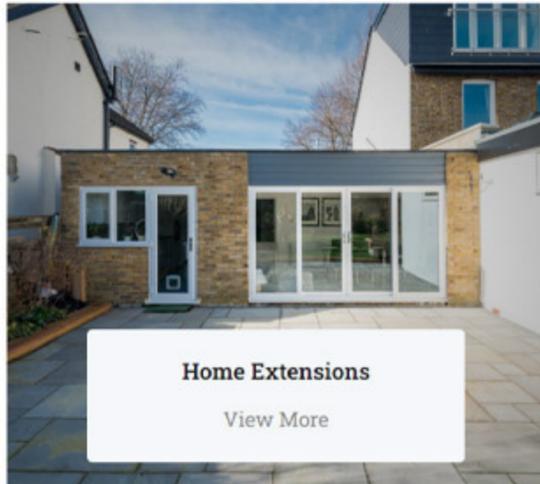

"This result will definitely help, the fans being behind us makes a huge difference. We'll bring that same energy and hopefully get another win."

The FA Cup delivered a number of shocks and impressive performances from National League sides on the weekend.

Arguably the biggest shock of the round was Gateshead's 2-0 victory at League One side AFC Wimbledon. The Dons sat sixth in League One ahead of the tie but the National League side made up the 57 places between the two sides with an impressive away performance.

Former U's forward Kain Adom bagged his eleventh of the season in all competitions to give the North East side the lead. A second from Fenton John just after half-time gave them a 2-0 lead which saw them progress to the Second Round to host Walsall who beat Eastleigh 3-0 on Sunday.

Boreham Wood made it ten games unbeaten at Meadow Park after winning 3-0 against League Two strugglers Crawley. Matt Rush's thirteenth of the season and Zak Brunt's penalty gave the Hertfordshire side a 2-0 lead within fifteen minutes and a Ryan Loft red card in first-half injury time killed any hope of a comeback for the Sussex side. A sixth away game without a win on the road for Crawley was confirmed when October's National League player of the month, Abdul Abdulmalik added a third for Wood midway through the second half. Garrard's side will fancy their chances of progressing to the third round with a home tie against Newport in the next round.

The form book was turned upside down in the Saturday evening kick-off as Brackley (picking up one point in their previous five games) beat Notts County (ten points from their previous four games). Despite twice going behind to goals from Alassana Jatta and Jodi Jones, Matt Lowe and Callum Stewart's ninety-sixth minute penalty took the game to extra-time and a penalty-shoot out. Jatta and Bennett failed to convert their penalties for the League Two side and Zak Brown scored to give the National League side a 4-3 victory in the shootout. The current National League North champions have a home tie in the next round against League One's Burton who thumped Isthmian League side St Albans City 6-0 on the weekend.

Comeback of the First Round ties arguably came from Mark Hughes' Carlisle. A long journey to Reading looked to be ending in disappointment when they were 2-0 down after sixty-eight minutes. An inspired substitute from the birthday boy Hughes saw the game change as Regan Linney bagged twice in injury time to take the tie to extra-time. Linney completed his hat trick early in extra time and the Cumbrians saw out the victory to earn a trip to Blackpool who saw off another National League side Scunthorpe 1-0.

A number of National League sides were dumped out of the competition by lower league sides as well. Braintree suffered an embarrassing 4-1 defeat to local rivals Chelmsford. Just thirteen miles separate the two sides but there was a huge gap between the two sides on the pitch as a Lyle Taylor brace put the National League South through. The Clarets secured their revenge for the play-off semi-final defeat to Braintree two seasons ago and will host fellow National League South side Weston-Super-Mare in the Second Round after they caused a shock by beating National League side Aldershot.

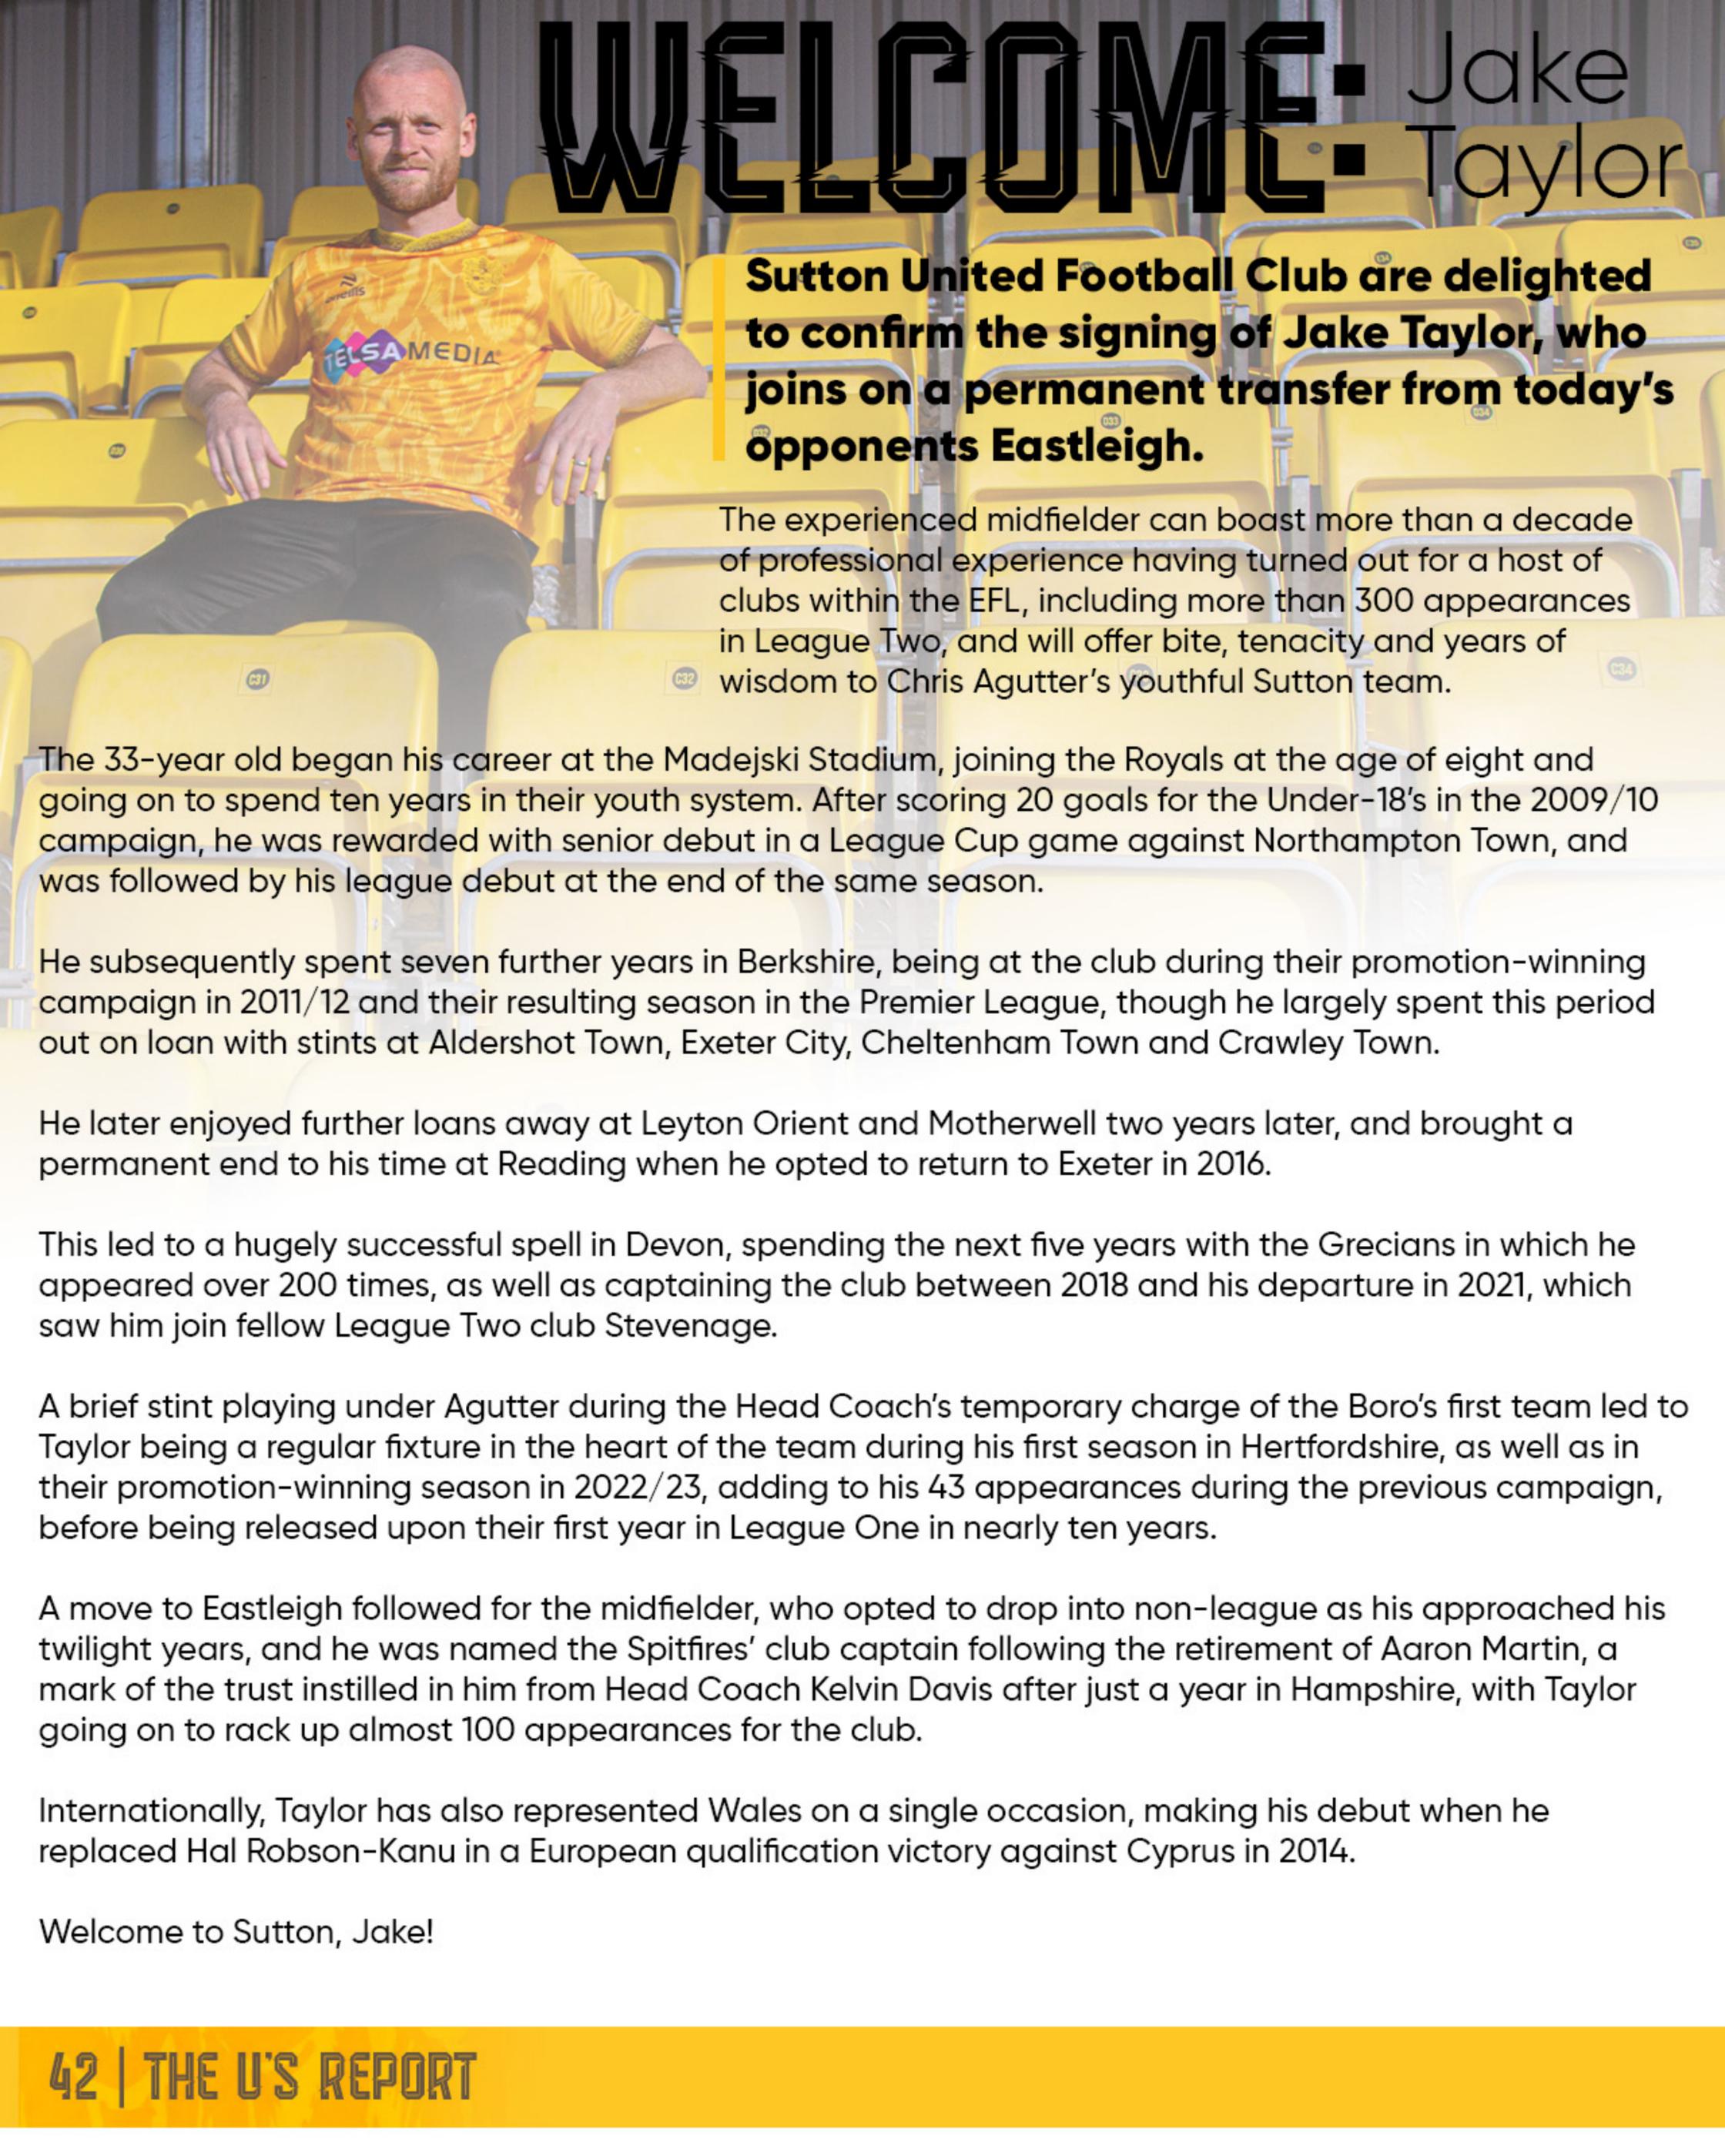

John Coleman's first game in charge of the Hampshire side got off to a good start with Kiban Rai scoring to give them a 1-0 lead until the eighty-fourth minute. Pressure paid off for the Somerset side as Emlyn Lewis equalised to take the tie to extra-time. James Waite scored in the second period of extra-time to send the home side through to the second round for the first time since the 2003-04 season.

The lowest ranked side left in the competition are Slough who dispatched Altrincham at Arbour Park. Two quickfire goals in four minutes from Ansu Janneh and Wiktor Makowski gave Scott Davies' side a 2-0 lead until James Gale's goal in the sixty-fifth minute. A sending off for Altrincham's Elliot Osborne ten minutes from time allowed Slough to see out a 2-1 win.

Their victory earned them another home tie against Altrincham's rivals Macclesfield who came through the tie of the round against AFC Totton. A Danny Elliott treble for the Silkmen made it 3-3 at half-time before the Cheshire side ran away with it in the second half winning 6-3.

WELCOME: Jake Taylor

Sutton United Football Club are delighted to confirm the signing of Jake Taylor, who joins on a permanent transfer from today's opponents Eastleigh.

The experienced midfielder can boast more than a decade of professional experience having turned out for a host of clubs within the EFL, including more than 300 appearances in League Two, and will offer bite, tenacity and years of wisdom to Chris Agutter's youthful Sutton team.

The 33-year old began his career at the Madejski Stadium, joining the Royals at the age of eight and going on to spend ten years in their youth system. After scoring 20 goals for the Under-18's in the 2009/10 campaign, he was rewarded with senior debut in a League Cup game against Northampton Town, and was followed by his league debut at the end of the same season.

He subsequently spent seven further years in Berkshire, being at the club during their promotion-winning campaign in 2011/12 and their resulting season in the Premier League, though he largely spent this period out on loan with stints at Aldershot Town, Exeter City, Cheltenham Town and Crawley Town.

He later enjoyed further loans away at Leyton Orient and Motherwell two years later, and brought a permanent end to his time at Reading when he opted to return to Exeter in 2016.

This led to a hugely successful spell in Devon, spending the next five years with the Grecians in which he appeared over 200 times, as well as captaining the club between 2018 and his departure in 2021, which saw him join fellow League Two club Stevenage.

A brief stint playing under Agutter during the Head Coach's temporary charge of the Boro's first team led to Taylor being a regular fixture in the heart of the team during his first season in Hertfordshire, as well as in their promotion-winning season in 2022/23, adding to his 43 appearances during the previous campaign, before being released upon their first year in League One in nearly ten years.

A move to Eastleigh followed for the midfielder, who opted to drop into non-league as his approached his twilight years, and he was named the Spitfires' club captain following the retirement of Aaron Martin, a mark of the trust instilled in him from Head Coach Kelvin Davis after just a year in Hampshire, with Taylor going on to rack up almost 100 appearances for the club.

Internationally, Taylor has also represented Wales on a single occasion, making his debut when he replaced Hal Robson-Kanu in a European qualification victory against Cyprus in 2014.

Welcome to Sutton, Jake!

Next in our series of fan events this season, following on from last month's managers evening, please join us in the MBA Lounge on Monday 17 November for an evening with your club captains Aaron Jones, Harry Phipps and Alex Woodyard.

SUPPORTER LIAISON OFFICER

CLAIRE LOUGHLIN

This is a great opportunity to hear from the boys about their lives in football, their time at Sutton and their aspirations for the future of the team. The event will be kicking off from 7:30pm, with the bar open from 6:45pm.

Tickets are free (but required) for all fans and are available through our ticketing website.

Following our fixture against Hartlepool we saw a double draw take place for Strikers Are Key, the first draw for our fixture against Yeovil, saw £200 up for grabs. The owners of Ball 47 - Triple Hat-trick tried their luck in opening the safe but weren't able to do so. The second draw for Saturday's fixture saw £450 in the safe, the owners of ball 23 - Sutton Saints were also unsuccessful in opening the safe. There will therefore be a minimum £650 up for grabs for the next draw following a Saturday league game.

As ever, if you have anything you want to chat about, ideas or feedback, do drop me a line slo@suttonunited.net or grab me on matchdays. I really do want to hear what you have to say and work together to make our club the best it can be.
